

We are HIRING

To strengthen our international team, we are looking for support as

Process Engineer (m/w/d)

Full-time | Enns / Austria

YOUR TASKS

- Planning, project execution and reporting of projects in our in-house technical center
- Design of industrial plants and dimensioning of plant components based on test results and customer requirements
- Creation of process flow diagrams, process descriptions, P&I diagrams, mass and energy balances
- Interdisciplinary cooperation with project management and other technical departments
- On-site technical support including troubleshooting, process optimization, as well as commissioning of plants and individual machines

BASIC QUALIFICATION / REQUIREMENTS

- Training in the field of process technology or similar
- Ability to work in a team, reliability, commitment
- English language knowledge
- Hands-on mentality & physical fitness
- Comparable professional experience advantageous
- Willingness to travel (worldwide, max. 30 % of annual work time)

BENEFITS

modern and safe working conditions | working independently | innovative development opportunities | flexible working hours | home office opportunities | food allowance | employee discounts | further training opportunities | corporate events | training on the Job

The collectively agreed minimum annual salary is: € 45.100 gross, with the appropriate qualifications and professional experience a significant overpayment is possible.

We are looking forward to your application via mail to jobs@cemtec.at.

30 years experience
on the global market

Innovative ideas and quality products

Tailored solutions
for each customer

Competent
customer service

Apply now! jobs@cemtec.at